An Assyrian Tablet.

An Assyrian tablet in the cellar of the British museum has on it a representation of the hanging gardens of Babylon, according to Herr Bruno Meissner. If he is right, this is the first testimony to their existence found among the cuneiform inscriptions.

The Longest Beard.

Probably the longest beard in the world is that of a metal worker in Marseilles. The man is 74 years old. When 14 years of age he had a beard six inches long. It grew from year to year, and now his hirsute attachment is unrolled, reaches the respectable length of ten feet ten inches. When this man goes out walking he carries his beard rolled up in a big skein under his arm. Since he is rather small in size, measuring but five feet three inches, the beard is more than twice the man's height.

RAW AS BEEF FROM ECZEMA!

No Torture Equal to the Itching and Burning of This Fearful Disease.

Eczema—which is more than skin-deep, and can not be reached by local applications of ointments, salves, etc., applied to the surface. The disease itself, the real cause of the trouble, is in the blood, although all suffering is produced through the skin; the only way to reach the disease, therefore, is through the blood.

Mr. Phil T. Jones, of Mixersville, Ind., writes: "I had Eczema thirty years, and after a great deal of treatment my leg was so raw and sore that it gave me constant pain. It finally broke into a running sore, and began to spread and grow worse. For the past five or six years I have suffered untold agony and had given up all hope of ever being free from the disease, as I have been treated by some of the best physicians and have taken many blood medicines, all in vain. With little left I began to take S. S. S., and it apparently cured the Eczema, but I knew that this was the remedy that got rid of the poison. Continuing S. S. S., the sore healed up entirely, the skin became clear and smooth, and I was cured perfectly."

Eczema is an obstinate disease and can not be cured by a remedy which is only a tonic. Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—is superior to other blood remedies because it cures diseases which they can not reach. It goes to the bottom—to the cause of the disease—and will cure the worst case of Eczema, no matter what other treatment has failed. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to be free from potash, mercury or any other mineral, and never fails to cure Eczema, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Tetter, Rheumatism, Open Sores, Ulcers, Boils, etc. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.

Books on these diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

Hamilton Female College.

In this issue appears the advertisement of Hamilton College, of Lexington, Ky. A representative of the ADVOCATE called on Prof. Hagerman, the Principal, last week. This college is not only popular in Kentucky, but in other States. Last year three young ladies from this county attended. Parents contemplating sending their daughters to school, should confer with the principal.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

SECRETLY MARRIED.

Captured Her Sister's Sweetheart, Secured a Divorce, and Now Marries His First Love.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 17.—It leaked out Sunday that Charles Wright, who was a soldier in the late war, had been secretly married at Jeffersonville by Magistrate Hanes to Miss Addie Lamasters. Wright was recently divorced from his first wife and thereby hangs a tale. Years ago he was engaged to marry his present helpmate, but the course of love did not run smoothly and they had a quarrel. Miss Nannie Lamaster, a sister of Addie's, appeared on the scene as a peace-maker. Wright was so charmed with the intermediary that he at once began a wooing that knew no failure. The other sister was forgotten.

Finally he was successful and married Nannie. They lived together until Wright joined the army. When he returned from Cuba his wife was waiting for him and they seemed to be perfectly happy. Suddenly a squall arose and a suit for divorce was filed by the husband. It was granted and a week later he was joined in the tie that binds to his original sweetheart. What caused this remarkable sequel can not be learned. Strange to say, the sisters have always remained good friends. Wright, when he applied for enlistment in the army, was refused. Going to a barber he had his hair dyed, shaved off his beard and in a new suit of clothes again made application and was successful.

The Family Barricaded.

MOOREHEAD, Ky., July 17.—M. C. Worrell swore out a peace warrant for the Warman family. Constable Morgan and another officer who went to serve it found the Warmans barricaded and heavily armed. The arrest was postponed when they refused to surrender. Sheriff Frayley will go after them with a posse at the request of Worrell. Trouble is feared.

The thermometer has registered 98 degrees several days, and as there has been no rain for about four weeks vegetation of every kind is dying. Stave Mill Destroyed by Fire.

VANCEBURG, Ky., July 17.—The large stave mill at Garrison, ten miles east of here, in this county, belonging to W. J. Fells, of Huntington, W. Va., burned to the ground. The mill had not been running for some time and the fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Low Water Stops Boats.

KUTTAWA, Ky., July 17.—The steamer Dudley, belonging to the Ryman line of boats, passed up for Nashville and will lay up until the river rises. She is the only boat that has been making trips during the low water. On the Tennessee river only small boats are running.

Sale of Family Heirlooms.

LONDON, Ky., July 17.—Judgment was given Saturday in the long-pending application of Sir Robert Peel to sell his family heirlooms for the support of himself and family. The court directed the sale of plate valued at $100,000, but refused to denude Drayton manor of historical heirlooms valued at $250,000.

OUR TWANG PUZZLES DOCTORS

Origin of Nasal Voices of Americans Cannot Be Determined.

At the twenty-first annual congress of the American Laryngological association the American voice was placed on trial and found guilty. It was pronounced officially as being characterized by a peculiar nasal twang, which could not be ascribed, as it has been so often, to affection of the throat or the vocal chords caused by the climate. Dr. John W. Farlow, of Boston, declared that children often acquired unpleasant voices through unconscious imitations, and that they were cured of the habit often by being placed with persons who spoke properly. He added that the great emigration of all nationalities to this country had introduced into our common speech all sorts of bizarre vocal sounds, and we were careless as to the best methods of speaking. Yet, said he, some of the pronounced nasal voices are heard in country villages where the population is purely native. The necessity of properly training children's voices cannot be urged too strongly. They should be removed as far as possible from vicious influences in this respect. Every fall our newspapers are flooded with advertisements of singing teachers, each one of whom asserts that he possesses the correct method, but only one person sings, while a hundred talk. People fall into the conversational habits of the community in which they live, and make no effort to better faulty methods.

Dr. Hudson Makuen, of Philadelphia, deplored the lack of attention given to tone formation. He thought that the excessive tension of American life was partly the cause of the nasal voice, and that the nation must learn to cultivate the teachings of the "gospel of relaxation," for American push was fast assuming the proportions of a national calamity.

Dr. Amory De Blois, of Boston, thinks that the peculiar quality of voice is a racial question largely. The guttural of the German, the vibratory nasal voice of the French, and the high-pitched tones of the Yankee are familiar illustrations, while the English voice among all social ranks is of an agreeable low pitch.

Dr. Thomas Hubbard, of Toledo, told the association that he ascribed to the noise in American cities much of the prevalent high-pitched speaking which is necessary to make one's self heard, and from the noisy environment also the ear becomes dulled, and the appreciation of vocal misuse blunted.

In closing the discussion Dr. Farlow expressed the view that the American voice was little due to language, for English is spoken in many lands, none of which present the American nasal tone. As to city noises, the most pronounced twang is heard often in the quiet village.—N. Y. Press.

THE NATIVE FILIPINOS.

Kind-Hearted, Hospitable, Assiduous, Easily Led and Superstitious.

Luzon is divided into 20 chief provinces, as follows: Tondo, Bulacan, Pampanga, Nueva Ecija, Zambales, Batuan, Cavite, Batangas, Laguna, Ilocos sur, Ilocos norte, Abra, Pangasinan, Cagayan, Nueva Camarines, Batams, Camarines sur, Camarines norte, Albay and Tabayas. This island, like Visayas, produced immensely, even under Spanish misrule, and but for that misrule might have become ere now the richest colony in the world. All the best lands have been, in the past, sequestered for convents, churches and other religious endowments, and the farmers (including all the natives engaged in any kind of industry or enterprise) were heavily taxed by both church and state. They were allowed to take up as much wild land as they were able to clear and plant, and they had a right to hold it as salable and heritable property as long as they were in actual occupation and cultivated it. When left tenantless the land reverted to the state, if the priests did not get it first.

In some of the provinces of Luzon the natives of the farming class received an elementary education, while such as had the means, and aspired to better instruction, could obtain it at Manila and in Europe; but the number of such aspirants was at no time large. The natives of Luzon have ever been known as kind-hearted, hospitable, assiduous, easily led and very superstitious.—Maj. Adolph G. Studer, in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.
